

iodata GmbH Named Qlik EMEA Channel Growth Partner of 2025

Recognized for standout customer impact and market leadership in EMEA

iodata GmbH helps organizations turn AI, analytics, and data into tangible results while preparing for an agent-driven future.

Key takeaways:

- Drives customer results in EMEA: Helps organizations achieve measurable outcomes through end-to-end projects, high customer value and a fast return on investment (ROI), delivering clear business value.
- Makes trust practical, not theoretical: Strengthens the data confidence teams need to move faster, through disciplined approaches to quality, consistency, and governed access.
- Builds readiness for agent-driven work: Enables customers to leverage agent-led workflows over time by ensuring decisions and execution are grounded in trusted data.

Kissimmee, FL, April 13, 2026 – iodata GmbH, the data company, today announced it has been honored by Qlik® as the EMEA Channel Growth Partner of 2025. This recognition highlights iodata’s leadership in delivering outstanding customer outcomes through impactful AI, data, and analytics solutions tailored to the unique demands of customers across the EMEA market.

The annual Qlik Regional Partner Awards recognize partners who are driving real momentum in their local markets. Winners deliver measurable outcomes and strategic value, helping customers move with confidence now while building the data trust and operational readiness needed for an agent-driven future.

iodata GmbH is a Qlik-only partner offering the full Qlik portfolio, including licenses, consulting, managed services, and hands-on training. With more than 220 customers and 750+ successful projects, iodata has deep experience across industries such as retail, manufacturing, logistics, and production. The company supports customers in the DACH region with fast implementation of BI and analytics projects, from dashboards and data integration to AI-driven insights.

“This award reflects the kind of partner every customer wants: one who delivers impact now while preparing the organization for what’s next,” said Mike Gray, Senior Vice President, WW Channels and Alliances at Qlik. “iodata GmbH is helping customers build the trust and operational readiness that agent-driven work will demand.”
